

Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization

Date: 05.12.2021

Scope of the License:

Under the authority of this license, JevAlliance is authorized to engage in the following activities within Canada:

Blockchain Forensic Investigations:

- Analyze and trace blockchain transactions to identify and recover misappropriated funds.
- Collaborate with global financial institutions, law enforcement agencies, and legal entities to provide evidence for fraudulent activity on distributed ledgers.

Company Address:

126 26 Ave SW, Calgary,
Alberta, Canada

LICENSE TO OPERATE AS A REGISTERED LEGAL ENTITY SPECIALIZING IN BLOCKCHAIN FORENSICS

This certifies that JevAlliance, located at 126 26 Ave SW, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, is officially registered and licensed as a legal entity specializing in blockchain forensics under the regulations of the Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization (CIRO).

Client Advocacy and Fund Recovery:

- Represent clients in negotiations with financial institutions and regulatory bodies to facilitate the return of funds lost to fraudulent brokers.
- Employ advanced blockchain technology and compliance tools to identify links between illicit brokers and criminal networks.

Legal and Compliance Advisory Services:

- Advise clients on legal remedies and compliance strategies to mitigate future risks of financial fraud.
- Assist banks and financial institutions with risk assessments and regulatory reporting on blockchain-related fraud cases.

Conditions of the License:

This license is granted on the condition that JevAlliance adheres to all CIRO regulations, including but not limited to:

- Submission of detailed forensic reports and periodic compliance documentation.
- Maintenance of state-of-the-art blockchain tracing technologies.
- Engagement in ethical practices, aligned with CIRO's principles of transparency and integrity.

Collaboration with Regulatory and Banking Bodies:

- Partner with Canadian and international banking systems to ensure seamless coordination in asset recovery efforts.
- Provide forensic analysis reports to support regulatory investigations and legal proceedings.

Failure to comply with CIRO regulations may result in suspension or revocation of this license.

Issued by:

Andrew J. Kriegler
President & CEO
Canadian Investment Regulatory Organization

Expiration Date:

05.12.2031

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

LICENSE TO OPERATE AS A LEGAL ENTITY SPECIALIZING IN BLOCKCHAIN FORENSICS

FROM:

Date: 14.11.2021

Securities and Exchange Commission
100 F Street NE
Washington, DC 20549
USA

This certifies that JevAlliance, located at 126 26 Ave SW, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, is hereby registered as a legal entity authorized to operate in blockchain forensics and fund recovery under the authority of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

UNDER THIS LICENSE, TRUSTLEDGER IS AUTHORIZED TO:

- Blockchain Transaction Analysis:
- Utilize advanced blockchain analysis tools to trace illicit transactions, identify fraudulent brokers, and recover lost funds.
- Collaborate with U.S. and international banks to uncover financial networks involved in fraudulent schemes.
- Representation and Fund Recovery:
- Represent clients in asset recovery efforts, including negotiations with financial institutions and filing legal claims.
- Work closely with U.S. regulatory bodies to provide critical evidence for enforcement actions.
- Anti-Fraud and Compliance Support:
- Assist U.S.-based banks and financial institutions in detecting, reporting, and preventing blockchain-related fraud.
- Provide consultation on implementing best practices for crypto-asset security and regulatory compliance.
- Legal and Forensic Reporting:
- Produce detailed reports for use in legal proceedings and regulatory audits, ensuring accuracy and admissibility in court.

JevAlliance is required to comply with all SEC regulations, including maintaining robust cybersecurity measures, adhering to financial reporting requirements, and ensuring ethical operations. Any breach of these conditions may result in the suspension or revocation of this license.

Authorized By:
Jay Klenton

United States Securities and Exchange
Commission
Expiration Date: 14.11.2031

